

The BC Cowboy Hall of Fame nomination form!

Nominee Information

Nominee:

Address:

City:

Postal Code:

Phone number:

Email or Fax:

Nominators (two people)

Nominator one:

Address:

City:

Postal Code:

Phone number:

Email or Fax:

Nominator two:

Address:

City:

Postal Code:

Phone number:

Email or Fax:

- The above nominee has spent most of his/her working years working with cattle as a cowboy and/or rancher. This box must be checked, and true, for all nominations.

Categories - choose one or more.

- 1. WORKING COWBOY - a cowboy who has spent most of his/her working years as a working cowboy or rancher, and is looked up to by his/her peers.
- 2. COMPETITIVE - a cowboy who has done well in cowboy sports and contributed to the betterment of rodeo or other horse sports.
- 3. PIONEER - a rancher who has spent many years developing a ranch.
- 4. HORSEMAN - a cowboy/rancher who, as part of his job, has turned out extra good ranch or rodeo horses.
- 5. ARTISTIC - a cowboy/rancher who was also a poet, artist, musician, writer, and/or craftsman.
- 6. FAMILY - members have been involved in cowboy activities for three or more generations.
- 7. CENTURY RANCHES - ranches that have been in the same family for 100 years or more.

The deadline for nominations, for the year, is November 1st.

Fill out the form above and then print it.

Nominations may be mailed or delivered to:

The Museum of the Cariboo Chilcotin

113 N4th Ave, Williams Lake, BC, V2G 2C8.

Email: mccwl@uniserve.com